Auburndale, Mass., Oct. 22.—"Hurry Up" York and his band of Wolverines guilled into this harm. It all o'clock today, a tired and carwoon cround, after their twenty-two hours jog from Michigan. With them came the trainers and coaches. Every man on the squad looked as if he had been through some acrt of a conflict other than a football game. Bruised noses, black cross and cripced limbs were very much in evidence. In fact the hotel looked more like a hospital than a hostelity.

Rughitt, Michigan's little quarterback and all answard general, was the only man who really looked able to give battle aginst the Crimson his control of the mean were taken to Recreations. Field, a tew miles from the hotel for signal practice, while the remainder logged along the country roads for a limbering up.
